URA – Marketing Segmentation (Private Residential Properties)

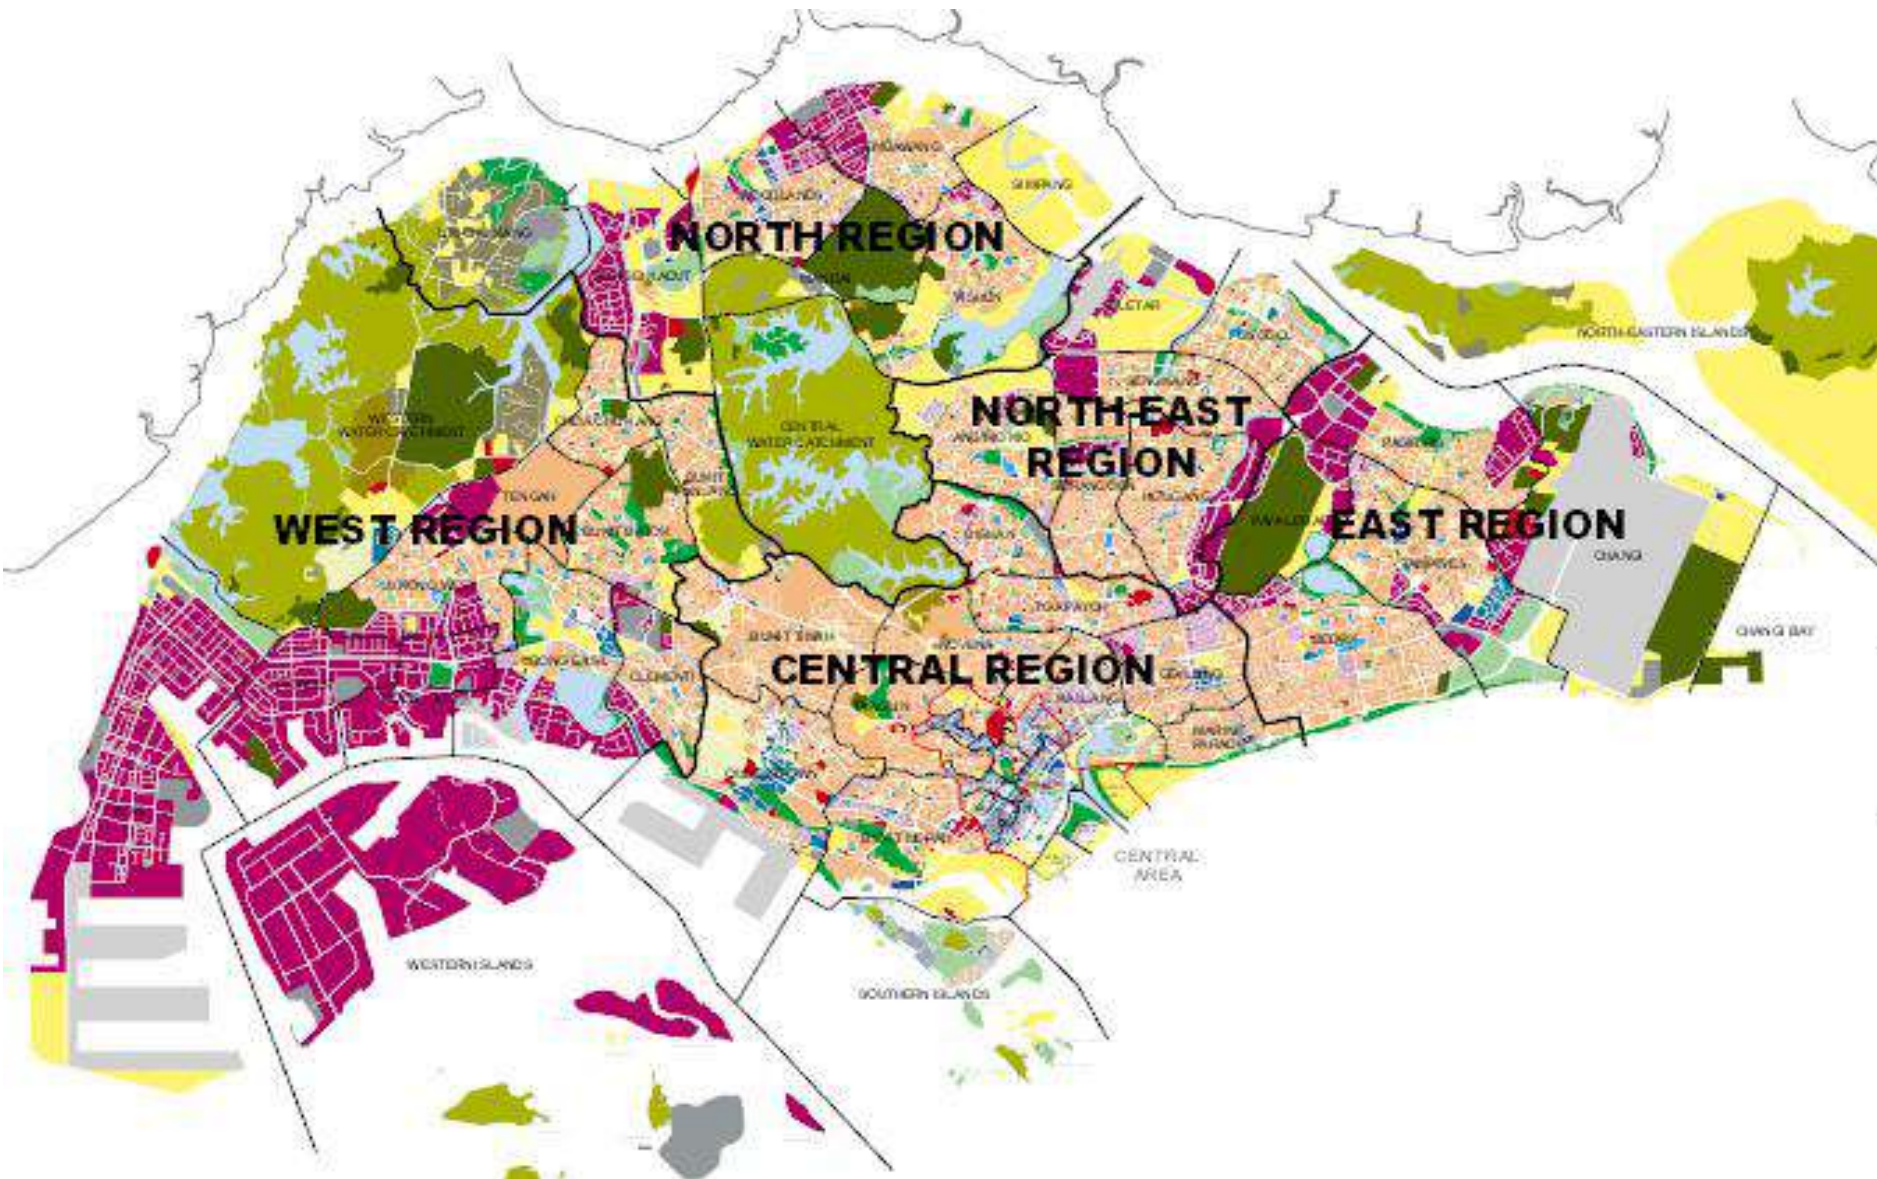

The private residential property market in Singapore is divided into 3 geographical market segments:

1. Core Central Region (CCR)
2. Rest of Central Region (RCR)
3. Outside Central Region (OCR)

Besides the 3 geographical segments, the private residential properties are further divided into 2 segments.

1. Non landed property which refers to apartments and condominiums.
2. Landed property which refers to detached houses, semi-detached houses, terrace houses, townhouses, strata bungalows and cluster housing.

Restrictions On The Strata Subdivision of Commercial Properties

Strata subdivision of the commercial properties located at prominent areas will not be allowed

Developments located along

1. Orchard Road
2. Tanglin Road
3. Scotts Road
4. Shenton Way
5. Robinson Road
6. Anson Road
7. Raffles Quay, facing Raffles Place Park, and along the Singapore River
8. Developments in close proximity to key landmarks of national significance

Reason:

Strata subdivided developments due to their fragmented ownership, buildings tend to face challenges in maintenance and upkeep.
