Uses not Allowed in Historic Districts

Certain types of uses are not allowed in Historic Conservation Areas as they may create dis-amenity to the surroundings. These uses include:

- New bars, pubs, nightclubs and karaoke lounges
- New massage establishments and spas
- Amusement centres
- Motor vehicle showrooms
- Warehouse stores. They may only be considered if such a use is ancillary to the main use
- Places of worship, unless previously authorised. They should be located on land zoned for places of worship
- Pollutive trades such as engineering, spray-painting, welding, plumbing, motor, metal and joinery workshops, tyre and battery shops, and plastic products manufacturing
